To do this, it needs workers. Businesses also drain your metrics. There are two different types of businesses in this game. Daily profit and per-item-profit businesses. Daily profit businesses produce a daily amount of money depending on your number of workers and the level of your business. Availability Edit Each business belongs to one particular career. To get the business, you need to reach a specific level in that career. The business will stay with you after you get the career it belongs to, but being at the top of it increases the production of your business. Life Simulator 3 is a simple yet addictive game for Android by Playdrop. In the game, you create a character, guide him/her to a specific career path, get social, get married, have kids, and maintain the wealth, health, and happiness! If you've just started playing it, then you're on the right page. This Life Simulator 3 guide covers all the fundamentals of the game. Also, we've shared a lot of life Simulator 3 tips, cheats & strategies you may like. So, let's go to the main content without further ado. Life Simulator 3 Guide, Tips: - You start the game by creating a character - as a teenager, your parents can kick you out after a few years or months - then you'll have to survive on your own. In Life Simulator 3, every second - a day passed - on the upper right corner of the game screen, pay attention to the date to check life's timeline The first thing you need to do is start working in a part-time job and educate yourself. To raise yourself is necessary to high-paying high-paying There are also special courses to enroll in - for example; if you want to drive, you need a driving licence. To stay alive, you need good health, wealth, shelter, food. The basic needs. Once you're stable or on a high-paying job, you can start a relationship, get married, have kids, and live a luxury life. Let's learn everything in detail and explore all the Life Simulator 3 tips, tricks and strategies: - Decide a specific career at the top menu, go to the second tab - this is the employment section where you can check all sorts of jobs - Life Simulator 3 game features 100s of work. There is a specific requirement to get a job - for example - to become an architect, you need 5 years of construction manager experience. And, to become a construction manager, you need 2 years of construction worker experience. For this requirement, you need to have 1 year of construction trainee experience. And, to get a construction trainee job, you need dishwasher experience (6 months). So to get to a top-level job, you start with an entry-level job. In this example you become an architect - Dishwasher - 6 Months Construction Pupil - 1 Year Construction Worker - 2 Year Assistant Manager (Construction) - 5 Years Then You Become an Architect. So the first hint we would recommend is decide a particular top-tier job that you want to do later in the game and then start making experience according to it. In the above example - you will start from the Dishwasher, then Construction Trainee - > worker -> driver -> architect. In some of the careers you need a degree or certificate. For example - Psychology, Sailing, Sea Survival, etc. Go to the third tab in the top menu -> is the education tab where you can enroll for certain qualifications. In some courses, you may need to quit the current job. Start earning money as soon as possible studying in university or college requires money - if you want to educate the character, it's better to earn some money first by doing entry-level jobs. If the balance is negative, you will not be able to survive for long. So, start making money as soon as you start life. Learn how to get followers if you want to be a vlogger in Life Simulator 3, you need to socialize. Tap the like button in the top right corner/menu. There you can spend money socialising. Also, if you want to date someone or meet someone to start a relationship, make sure you socialize. You will keep getting the followers as you spend money and progress through the game. Another of the best ways to get more followers is by adopting a pet. In the footer menu, go to the shop tab -> pets -> there you can buy/take pets; Bunny, Cat, Dog, Duck, Fox, etc. Increasing the prestige level unlocks new pets such as penguins, tiger, bear, and dragon. They cost too much - so be careful. Learn how to get married first, socialize. Wait until you meet someone - the game will notify you if you meet someone - it's completely random. Go to the relationship relationship in the footer list -> there you can check the relationship status; single or in a relationship. When you meet someone and you want to marry her, you have to propose. First, increase the love strength through gift, interact. You can check the power on the same menu. If your partner says yes, then tap the wedding button to get married - then you can try for a baby. If the partner says no, then wait - keep interacting regularly and keep proposing after a few weeks. Rent Home, Get Food to Maintain Your Health Status, you need a proper diet and shelter. Go to the shopping tab > food -> spend on the food plans. This is necessary if your parents kick you out of their home. Another thing is to rent a house. Go to the properties tab in the footer list -> there you can buy or rent the house. You'll have to spend a lot if you want to buy an apartment. Hiring would be a good option in the early game. Although, you should be in good profit state to be approved for hiring. So start doing a job first. Manage The Finance Go to the piggy bank tab in the top menu - > you can look inbound and outgoing. Try to cut off the unnecessary expenses if you want to earn a profit or reduce the losses. For example - if you have a pet, you can dump him; shopping -> pets -> my pets -> tap the pet -> put up for adoption. Visit hospital to recover health if you are low on health, go to the hospital -> spend -> to recover health. Go to the heart tab in the footer menu -> visit the hospital. Keep an eye on events random events impacting life statistics such as happiness, family, social, good, bad, etc. Responding to these events can help you improve your life statistics. In the home tab, tap the life statistics button to check the statistics. Besides these stats, you need to stay fit - visit the gym regularly to improve fitness. Go to the heart tab -> scroll down to the bottom -> regular gym membership. You can cancel it at any time. Also, be sure to claim the special reward by watching the video ad. Get the free boosters in Life Simulator 3, you can speed up the time and increase revenue by watching the video photos. Go to the home tab in the top menu -> under the work experience label, there are two offers; look at an ad for revenue boost or to speed up time. Learn how to become a serial investor You need a business degree, 100K cash and 30 logic. Logic - Logic can be improved by visiting the library. Go to the shopping tab -> in the other stuff section, you'll find online dating, library membership, sports club membership, acting school, music gigs, etc. Spend on library memberships to increase logic monthly. 100K cash can be obtained through a do this. Business grade -> go to the education tab -> master's degree courses -> business -> enroll.
